

Conventions | The organizers of the Supanova pop culture festival in Melbourne, Australia, triggered a social-media firestorm after removing a comic by artist Scarlett Baccini from her table because of explicit sexual content. The festival has a strict ban on pornography, and other adult material must be kept sealed and away from children. One of [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2014/04/comics-a-m-australian-expo-draws-criticism-for-pulling-comic/>