

Pointing to “seismic changes” in the number of convention-exclusive variants offered by publishers and toymakers, Mile High Comics President Chuck Rozanski has announced that after more than four decades, this may be his last year at Comic-Con International. While he acknowledges in an installment of his Mile High newsletter that “the detrimental effects of exclusives [...]”

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2014/07/mile-high-comics-may-pull-out-of-sdcc-over-exclusive-variants/>