

June's always kind of a rough month in our household. It's busy busy busy for the first couple of weeks, and then school's out, classes are done, and I feel ridiculously bereft. But some Junes are rougher than others. See, I've been teaching cartooning and writing classes in west Seattle middle schools long enough that [...]

Read more: <http://goodcomics.comicbookresources.com/2012/06/17/saturday-at-commencement/>