

Three people were hurt Saturday in San Diego when a car drove through the annual ZombieWalk held in conjunction with Comic-Con International. A 64-year-old passersby was taken to the hospital with a possible broken arm, and the other two suffered only minor injuries. Accounts of the incident vary, but the San Diego Police Department says [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2014/07/sdcc-three-injured-as-car-drives-through-zombiewalk/>