

I love Halloween. It's easily my favorite holiday. Christmas is a close second thanks to all the nostalgia (my parents do an epic warm Christmas). But there's so much pressure on Christmas (just like New Years) that it can start to feel like obligation more than celebration and even I grow weary of the music [...]

Read more: <http://goodcomics.comicbookresources.com/2014/10/27/she-has-no-head-superheroine-costumes-minor-tragedies-of-our-time/>