

Yesterday, we saw images of a bearded Henry Cavill filming scenes for Man of Steel in Vancouver, which is doubling for a small Alaskan village. Well, today we have reports and images that reveal that Amy Adams is also on location filming scenes alongside Henry. Personally, I think a strong acting performance trumps any sort of visual departure from how a character is traditionally depicted in the comics. In the case of Lois Lane, she's had numerous hair-styles in the comic books but traditionally she's had dark hair. With Adams sporting a decidedly, "ginger" look I was wondering if you guys, (the fans) are irked by the decision not to go with her traditional look? Vote and sound off in the comments section below. Man of Steel is an upcoming American superhero film under the development of Zack Snyder, Christopher Nolan, and David S. Goyer. Based on the
