

I love the old school stuff and this Incredible Hulk Shirt doesn't disappoint. The image on the shirt is purposefully distressed to give it that classic worn look and the shirt itself is made from a cotton blend that makes it super soft. The technical term for that blend is 30-single if there are any screen printer or apparel people reading this. We also got a few new sublimated images and a great new Hulk Costume T-Shirt. You can check out a few of those below but make sure you click through and check out the full selection. While you are on our site, you can do us a huge favor and pick the shirt you like the best, and then hit the Google +1 icon and the Facebook "Like" button to help spread the word.
