

Marvel Studios is expected to announced at Comic-Con International that &quot;Guardians of the Galaxy&quot; is its mystery movie set for release in May 2014. Rumors that the studio was hoping to bring the space-faring heroes to the big screen surfaced in August, and were confirmed two months later, with President Kevin Feige saying, &quot;There's an opportunity to do a big space epic, which 'Thor' sort of hints at, in the cosmic side of the [Marvel] universe...
