

Earlier today, a federal judge struck down New York City's "stop and frisk" law on the grounds that the law was basically just a form of racial profiling. Whether you believe that the judge's ruling was accurate or not, it is a striking commentary on the fact that racial politics and issues of civil rights [...]

Read more: <http://goodcomics.comicbookresources.com/2013/08/13/march-book-1-review/>