

An employee of the Ohio Department of Health has reportedly confessed to illegally downloading, television series and more than 30,000 comic books from torrent sites to state computers. The Cleveland Plain Dealer reports that Edward Jones Jr., who has worked in information technology for the agency since 1992, admitted to the activity during an investigation [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2013/10/ohio-state-worker-downloaded-thousands-of-comics-movies-with-government-computers/>