

Gordon Lee, the Georgia retailer who famously fought off charges of distributing materials harmful to minors, passed away Sunday following complications from a series of strokes. He was 54. The popular owner of Legends in Rome, Georgia, Lee was arrested in 2004 after participating in a trick-or-treat event in which thousands of comics were given [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2013/01/retailer-gordon-lee-passes-away/>