

CBR spinoffonline talked with producer Mark Canton at at this years WonderCon. The discussion focused mainly on the upcoming film Immortals. However, he did take a moment to touch on where the much anticipated follow up to 300 Xerxes is at right now. "It's talked about. Ask Zack." "It's in Zack's hands. We're in a very good place. We've taken a lot of time, we didn't want to just make a sequel. We're very close to the group of people who made that movie and very respectful of what the fans think of the movie, so I can assure that we're determined to make a great follow-up. It will not be a conventional sequel at all." Asked if this is the story we've heard about, the one that connects with Xerxes, Canton grew hesitant. "Kind of. It's just more Godfather Part II-like. There's a lot going on, a parallel story. There's a lot going
