

THE DEATH OF JEAN DEWOLFF Spectacular Spider-Man #107-110 "The Death of Jean DeWolff" is a four-part story arc written by Peter David and penciled by Rich Buckler. Jean DeWolff was a supporting character, a police detective that when we first meet her, Spidey's biggest fan. Of course this is because the Bugle has influenced her perception of the wall crawler. But over time DeWolff becomes one of Spider-Man's biggest allies on the force, and they become good friends. In this story arc Jean is murdered by her ex-lover Stan Carter, aka Sin-Eater. When Spidey gets to the crime scene he is taken aback when he finds a collection of photos that Jean kept of her and Spider-Man. He even finds an altered photo, that Jean placed an image of herself over Black Cat's so that she was in the image next to Spidey. This packs an emotional wallop as Peter realizes too late
