

Promotion for the DVD and Blu-ray release of Marvel's The Avengers superhero team-up of a lifetime is slowly approaching. And kicking things off a bit early, Weta Digital has released five minutes of footage in original high-quality, that showcase their visual effects contributions. In addition, Logan VFX has offered details and images from the movie's memorable Celebration Montage. Check out the images and video embedded below! Logan collaborates with director Joss Whedon and Marvel to create the "Celebration Montage" for the film The Avengers. Logan was tasked with conceptualizing and shooting the elements that would comprise the montage sequence depicting a worldwide homage to The Avengers. Our take was to show reactions from around the world. Children with homemade Thor hammers, men getting the Tony Stark look at a barbershop in Mumbai, a rally in support of The Avengers in New York, people grieving at a candle light vigil to establish the

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/MarvelFreshman/news/?a=64343>