

So far, we've seen a selection of good reviews for Captain America: The First Avenger from a variety of trusted critics. Here however are another ten, some good and some BAD. While none of us like to see the big screen exploits of our favourite comic book characters torn apart, the sad fact is, it happens! Taken from Rotten Tomatoes, the following give an overall picture of what we can expect, although you can find more by clicking on the link below. It's worth noting that there are still plenty to come from the likes of Empire and Total Film, while many won't hit until next week due to it being released internationally a little later. Don't let that 59% worry you too much just yet! For whatever reason, many of the following critics don't actually assign any sort of rating to the movie, but I've included the ones which have. Either
