

To have two competing projects at the same time isn't nothing new. Just ask th makes of the two Snow White films featuring Lily Collins (Blindside) in one, and Kristin Stewart (Twilight) in the other. You could also look at the great race to destroy Earth, when Michael Bay's Armageddon and Deep Impact slugged it out in the same summer. But there is a twist with these competing projects because this time around they are being developed at the SAME studio, ABC. Could both make it to air? Maybe, but most likely not. Obviously whoever is in charge at ABC television division is must be a big fan of the classic tale of Dr. Jekyll and his alter ego Hyde. Maybe the oddest part in all of this is that ABC is also developing the Marvel superhero HULK into a television show as well. And the hulk is a modern retelling
