

At WonderCon earlier today, Jeph Loeb announced who would be providing the voices for the characters in two of Marvel's highly anticipated Anime series. Adrian Pasdar will be voicing Tony Stark, as Iron man takes on the evil Zodiac Organization and Milo Ventimiglia gives his take on Wolverine as he takes on Japan's criminal underworld. Both actors previously worked together as Nathan and Peter Petrelli in Heroes Said Loeb.. "Adrian and Milo are perfect as Iron Man and Wolverine. It's extremely exciting to see these talented guys take on two of the most iconic Super Hero roles of all time." Both series will premiere on G4 in July 2011, with Blade and X-Men following later in the year.
