

The Daily Mail UK are reporting that Albert Finney has joined the cast of Sam Mendes' James Bond flick. A veteran of the stage and screen, this will mark Finney's return to acting after a 5 year hiatus while he battled prostate cancer. According to the site Finney.. ..will play a Foreign Office mandarin with powers over the Secret Intelligence Service, described to me as a reasonably big role and full of class. The part probably makes him M's boss, though she — as played by Judi — might not see it that way. Finney adds even more class to a cast that includes Daniel Craig, Dame Judi Dench, Javier Bardem and Ralph Feinnes. The 75 year sold thesp will also be reprising his role as Albert Hirsch in Tony Gilroy's The Bourne Legacy. The 23rd Bond movie is rumored to be called "Skyfall" but that has yet to be confirmed.
