

Bleedin Cool have posted a brief update from the The NY Amazing Spider-Man event, and while we don't get any footage descriptions, (keep an eye out for that very soon from our own Josh Wilding who attended the London event) we do discover that Andrew Garfield is a fan of the new Ultimate Spider-Man comic, and not only that.. Actor Andrew Garfield was asked, on stage about the honour of playing Spider-Man. He told the crowd that the role is bigger than any one actor, that last time it was Toby, this time it's him and next time... he wants to see the role played by a half Hispanic, half African-American actor. Now while he doesn't come right out and say it, it's pretty clear he is talking about Miles Morales, the current Ultimate incarnation of Spider-Man. Now we assume Garfield will be playing the role at least one more time as a
