

“I’m hanging with you because you make me realize there’s worse things to be than me!”
--ANGEL SALVADORE --> Who is ANGEL SALVADORE? ANGEL SALVADORE, who is often simply called Angel is a fictional character in the X-Men universe created by Grant Morrison and Ethan Van Sciver. She first appeared in New X-Men #118. First Appearance ANGEL SALVADORE mutation first manifested when she was fourteen. Driven out of her home by his abusive stepfather. One morning she found herself waking up in a cocoon developing a pair of insect wings. Angel mistreated by her stepfather She is then captured by a group of men who harvest mutant parts to use for their own purposes. Wolverine came to her rescue and brought her to Xavier's school. At the institute at first, Angel does not fit in well, but She would later prove helpful fighting alongside the X-Men and their pupils against menaces like Cassandra Nova. Angel

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/pollmaster/news/?a=39252&t=ANGEL_SALVADORE_Tempest