

Some more news about the new Green Arrow television show that will air on The CW has been obtained. The project, titled Arrow has been described as a more modern retelling that sets the superhero "in a new world with an original story that is not based on the comics." The hour-long drama is from Green Lantern duo Greg Berlanti and Marc Guggenheim. There is no word as of yet if this will be similar to the Emerald Archer we saw in Smallville or not. In this casting breakdown obtained by The TV Addict, some familiar names and elements from Green Arrow's long comics history — including Dinah (Black Canary) Lance, as well as nods to the villain Merlyn the Archer and, possibly Green Arrow: Year One writer Andy Diggle: Oliver Queen: A 27-year-old reformed bad boy, who after having spent five years shipwrecked on a tiny, brutally dangerous island in the South
