

I am pleased to report that Kelly Hu's wig looked much better on screen than in the stills initially released. All kidding aside, yesterday saw the second episode of the CW's Green Arrow adaptation debut and with all the buzz surrounding the pilot I'm sure there are loads of opinions here. Sound off and vote below and if you missed the ep, it's now online at The CW for your viewing pleasure. Look for my full review of this episode and the pilot to hit the site very soon. KELLY HU GUEST STARS AS DC COMICS VILLAIN CHINA WHITE — Oliver heads to the courthouse to get his death certificate repealed and is pleasantly surprised to run into Laurel, who is there prosecuting Martin Somers (guest star Ty Olsson), a criminal with ties to the Chinese Triad. Oliver recognizes Martin's name from his father's book and sets his sights on taking him
