

Phew, that was quite an episode of Arrow, eh? We'll let you share your thoughts on it in the comments section down below, but before you do so, a new promo for next week's episode has been released by The CW. As you can see, it revolves around the hunt for a new Black Canary, and it seems that the team may have found the perfect replacement...unfortunately, she doesn't seem particularly interested! How do you think the show is handling Black Canary since the departure of Laurel Lance in last year? In his quest to take down Kovar, Oliver (Stephen Amell) gets help from a surprising source – Talia al Ghul (guest star Lexa Doig). However, when she reveals what she wants from him in exchange, Oliver isn't sure he can accept her help. Felicity (Emily Bett Rickards) attempts to hack the NSA to help free Diggle (David Ramsey) but when her online efforts are flagged, she faces off against an unknown adversary.
