

When it comes to the future of the CW's Arrow, it appears that one of its stars is an ambitious dreamer. David Ramsey, who plays John Diggle on the show, is really gunning for an appearance from Bruce Wayne/Batman. While seeing the Caped Crusader would be joyous for many fans, Ramsey revealed at a Wizard World Comic-Con panel in New Orleans that he'd love to see the dynamic between Bruce and Oliver Queen without the superhero outfits. "I think for sure Bruce Wayne. Like, I would love to see these two billionaires; well, [asking co-star Stephen Amell] are you still a billionaire? Math is hard. You should be, you totally should be. I would love to see these two guys at a table together just like 'Sup Bruce', 'Sup Oliver'. You know what I mean? And duke it out, like no utility belt, no arrows, just hand to hand man." As for who Ramsey would have play Batman? Well, the dream gets even
