

The immediate focus on Arrow seems to be Oliver's quest to find a new Black Canary following the death of Laurel Lance, but Prometheus and turncoat Artemis are still looming large. However, if you thought Artemis would just continue as Prometheus' flunky, you might be surprised. "We have a really cool, exciting twist for how she's going to reappear," Mericle teased to TV Line. "The interesting thing about the choices Evelyn has made is that as much as she took the moral high ground when confronting Oliver, she has allied herself with someone who is even worse. She's gone from the frying pan into the fire." Will Evelyn eventually return to Team Arrow once she learns that Prometheus is willing to kill just as much if not more than Oliver? Or is the twist that she'll somehow emerge as (yet another) candidate to take up the Black Canary mantle? After all, Evelyn Sharp debuted as a Black Canary copycat and already has
