

Marvel and Sony Pictures have just confirmed that we'll see the very first trailer for Spider-Man: Homecoming on Jimmy Kimmel tomorrow night, and they've released a few seconds of footage to get fans hyped up. It begins from Peter Parker's (Tom Holland) perspective as Happy Hogan (Jon Favreau) enters the frame. We then see the young superhero approaching a case that's been left for him by Tony Stark, which is followed by our first look at Spider-Man gliding through the air on those web-wings we've all been waiting to see. Check out the vid below, and let us know what you think of this first glimpse of Spider-Man: Homecoming. Tomorrow, Spider-Man comes home. Tune into @JimmyKimmelLive for a first look at the #SpiderManHomecoming trailer. pic.twitter.com/K5KHM0bqaU — Spider-Man (@SpiderManMovie) December 7, 2016
