

The good folks from Collider have recently received photos depicting new theater standees for two much-anticipated sequels of 2012; Sony's Men In Black III and Ghost Rider: Spirit Of Vengeance! With the duo-directed Ghost Rider sequel two months away, it's not surprise Sony are placing these in theaters; which seem to be the most recent promotion since August's trailer. With Men In Black III releasing in May, it seems the standee would coincide with the trailer debut in five days! Ghost Rider: Spirit Of Vengeance picks up where it's been several years since making a deal with the Devil and Johnny Blaze, living in self-imposed isolation, finds himself as the only person who can help save 10-year-old Danny – and ultimately the world – thanks to his unwanted and uncontrollable power – his ability to transform into the hell-on-wheels monster 'Ghost Rider'. Starring Nicolas Cage, Idris
