

The Flash is set to return for the second half of its third season next month, and The CW has just released a new promo for the first episode back, "Borrowing Problems from the Future." In it, we see Barry recruit the other members of Team Flash in an attempt to alter the events that lead to Savitar killing Iris. In order to do that, however, they'll need to go "back to the future." Check out the teaser below. Are you guys excited for the return of The Flash? "Blinded by anger, Barry unwittingly plays into Zoom's game and uncovers the evil speedster's true goal: to destroy all Earths in the multiverse. In the race of his life, Barry ultimately gets the upper hand against Zoom and defeats his nemesis. But unable to celebrate victory, Barry makes a world-shaking decision and speeds back in time to the night his mother died to stop Reverse Flash from killing her, irrevocably changing his past and
