

It's been a couple months since we have held a Beat Galactus, but today I returned with the trivia game. The theme was X-Men, which covered anything from comics to films to television series. Some of the questions were fairly easy to answer, but there were a couple that had the players stumped for a bit. At the end of it all, Spectre1983 came away with the victory, but there were numerous players who gave him a run for his money. Congrats to Spectre1983! He is the winner of a Galactus Bag of Comic Book Crap! Don't think the fun stops there! Below, you will find a link to a quiz made up of all the questions that were asked today. This is your opportunity to Beat Galactus. As a note, look for there to be more themed quizzes, as well as quizzes that will feature questions from a variety of topics.
