"I know there'll be someone after me, and hopefully someone after them - I'm just trying to keep [the series] going. We haven't been resting on our laurels, we've been plotting what to do with this film. The first one was a whirr - it was a new experience and flew by - the second one was the tricky second album, but this one we've really planned and got a great script. It's going to be different from
