

Over at The LA Times' Hero Complex Harold Perrineau discusses voicing Blade in G4's newest Anime show. He says he really loves the character and was a fan of the previous movies ("Especially the first two") starring Wesley Snipes. He describes his take on Blade and how he didn't want to stray too far from Snipes' portrayal, and talks about various other aspects of the new show. Most interestingly for all you cross-over fans.. Have you watched the other Marvel anime — X-Men and/or Iron Man? "They gave me a couple so that I could see what they were like. I didn't even know that they were doing them. So I used them as a reference and — I don't know if I'm giving anything away — but a couple of those characters will be in "Blade." And he also expresses interest in following in Snipes' footsteps to play Blade in live action.. Just

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/rorschachsrants/news/?a=53050&t=BLADE_ANIMEs_Harold_Perrineau_Would_Love_To_Play_The_Character_In_Live_Action