

In a recent interview with The Wall Street Journal, the actress discussed in great detail her role as Carol Ferris in Green Lantern, and below are some of the best bits. To read the article in its entirety, click on the link below to head on over to the site. On How She Would Compare Carol Ferris To The Likes Of Mary Jane Watson: She's very untraditional in the fact that she is head-to-head with Hal, and the fact that they are always challenging each other was something was really nice – she's not waiting for him to save her. There are times where he experiences weakness where she has to come in and save him, and I think that that's a little more like real life. It's nice to see that in a comic book film when there's a hero, he's the hero and he saves the world and he saves the

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/joshw24/news/?a=35212&t=Blake_Lively_Talks_In-Depth_About_Carol_Ferris_Role_In_iGreen_Lanterni