

Blue Bloods is a police drama about an Irish-American family made up of cops. The Reagan family patriarch is Tom Selleck, who plays Police Commissioner Frank Reagan. And Will Estes plays his son Jamie, who was a lawyer, but turns his back on the profession, and becomes a police officer instead. Revealed below, Will Estes won't be straying to far from his current role, as he will be playing a police officer in The Dark Knight Rises as well. Although he describes his role as small I wouldn't write that off as meaning it's insignificant. In the past Batman movies, Nolan has been able to squeeze out some big performances out of generally small roles. Just look at William Fichtner as the bank manager as an example of a small role that had a big impact. Or, look at Michael Jai White as Gambol, the mob boss that picks a fight
