

Another weird box office results...It seems that The Smurfs and Cowboys & Aliens are in a race for #1 spot this weekend, because both films are expected to get around $40M, while Captain America: The First Avenger will probably be #3 with around $25M. But this could all change, and we won't know the confirmed numbers until Monday. The good thing for Captain America is that the film managed to make enough money during the week, so even with $25M it will be on $110M mark after one week. From Deadline: 1. Cowboys & Aliens [3,750 Runs]- Friday $13M, Estimated Weekend $40M 1. The Smurfs - 3D [3,395 Runs]- Friday $13M, Estimated Weekend $40M 3. Captain America - 3D [3,715 Runs]- Friday $7.5M (-68%), Estimated Weekend $25M, Estimated Cume $110M Stay tuned for the full report!
