

The Hollywood Reporter has posted the latest figures for Marc Webb's reboot of the Sony Pictures franchise, The Amazing Spider-Man. $15.8 million yesterday means that it has now made a domestic total of $75 million as it held off competition from Katy Perry: Part of Me (which opened with a forgettable $3.1 million for the #5 spot. The superhero movie (starring Andrew Garfield, Emma Stone and Rhys Ifans) is currently expected to earn somewhere between $125 million and $140 million during its six day run, although no one seems quite certain how well it will perform this weekend. However, The Amazing Spider-Man is now open in virtually every territory and may very well end up hitting $250 million worldwide by close of business on Sunday. The Amazing Spider-Man is the story of Peter Parker (Garfield), an outcast high schooler who was abandoned by his parents as a boy, leaving him to be
