

Box Office Mojo reports that Men in Black 3 added an impressive $78.6M this weekend to bring its international gross to $274.6M. After earning another $29.3M domestically ($112.3M in total) the worldwide total for the threequel currently sits at $386.9M. Snow White and the Huntsman has debuted to an estimated $39.3M in 45 markets and $56.255M domestically. That makes a total of $95.555M; a good start for the darker take on the well-known fairy tale. It has yet to open in Australia, France, Italy, Japan and Russia. Meanwhile, Prometheus held off stiff competition from both of these films, opening up at #1 in 14 of the 15 countries it was released in for an estimated weekend gross of $35M. After we reported its strong opening in the UK yesterday, it has now been confirmed that it had an overall debut of $9.99M. Finally, Marvel's The Avengers added £12.4M to its

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/JoshWildingNewsAndReviews/news/?a=60913>