Make sure to click on the link below to visit the site for even more details about Brian Michael Bendis' plans for the Avengers over the next year or so, including his thoughts on working with legendary artist Neal Adams and much more. Bendis started by announcing a new crossover between the two main Avengers titles. "We're dubbing it 'The HAMMER War' for now. It's the return of Norman Osborn and the return of the Dark Avengers. It sets up a pretty large scale, multi-tiered war for the Avengers," said Bendis, noting that Osborn's new plan for HAMMER will overwhelm the numbers of the heroes currently in the rosters for both the Avengers and the New Avengers. The big story kicks off when Osborn's release from prison finds him confronting a willing group of followers that fans may not
