

According to the ever reliable Film Music Reporter, Marvel Studios and director Shane Black have finally chosen who'll compose the musical arrangement for next year's much-anticipated third Iron Man installment. While Ramin Djawadi tackled the score for the original Jon Favreau-directed movie, and John Debney scored the 2010 sequel, composer and conductor Brian Tyler has been hired for Iron Man 3, the site reveals. Brian Tyler has scored a number of big blockbusters including Eagle Eye, The Expendables, Battle: Los Angeles, The Final Destination, Rambo, Fast Five, and the recently released sequel, The Expendables 2. And he also worked on big video game titles such as Call of Duty: Modern Warfare 3, Transformers: Prime, and Need for Speed. What do you think? Described as a "technological crisis thriller," set in the world of international war, arms & terror, Marvel Studios' "Iron Man 3" stars Robert Downey Jr., Gwyneth Paltrow, Don Cheadle, Guy
