

Deadline report that Battlestar Galactica's Katee Sackhoff has joined the cast of Riddick. She will play the female lead, a character called "Dahl".. Katee Sackhoff is in final negotiations to play the female lead opposite Vin Diesel in the untitled Chronicles Of Riddick sequel. In the movie, written and directed by David Twohy, the Battlestar Galactica alumna will play Dahl, a Nordic mercenary tracking Riddick (Diesel). Apparently she has been rumored to be in the running for the role for a while now. Aside from BSG, Sackhoff (a big comic book fan) has appeared in 24, CSI, and has movies Haunting In Georgia and Evil Sexy Genius coming out later in the year. Production on Riddick is currently underway in Montreal. up your game at Gambling Insider
