

Based on a graphic novel, "Bullet to the Head" also tells the story of a New Orleans hitman (Stallone) and a New York City cop who form an alliance to bring down the killers of their respective partners. Twitch Film is reporting that the Warner Bros. film Bullet to the Head has been delayed so that Sylvester Stallone can oversee the final cut of the film. This shouldn't be too much of a surprise as it was previously reported months ago that Stallone was also very hands on with the script. In, August Twitch Films also reported that Stallone at some point worked on the script, but they weren't sure if it was to polish it, or if it was a complete rewrite. Last week when Warner Bros. removed the film from their scheduled April release date, they didn't provide any further information or a possible revised date, but Twitch's source
