

This week's episode of The Flash made it clear that Caitlin Snow's Killer Frost persona is beginning to emerge, but we'll see it full unleashed when the seventh episode of season three airs on The CW. Directed by Kevin Smith, the Team Flash member is going to end up squaring off with both the Scarlet Speedster and Vibe, but will there be any coming back from this for her? It doesn't sound good. It would of course be a real shame to say goodbye to her as an ally to The Flash in order to Caitlin to become the villainous Killer Frost on a permanent basis, but the show is definitely taking her in an interesting new direction here.
