

The Weapon X Instagram account has shared a new image from Logan, and as you can see, it features a fresh look at Caliban. Set to serve as caretaker of sorts to the ailing Professor X in the movie, we don't know much beyond that, especially as this appears to be a new take on a character we've already met in the 1980s set X-Men: Apocalypse. However, don't expect this movie to address that in any way! Here's what Logan director James Mangold recently had to say about casting Stephen Merchant: "I'm always interested to find the thing that looks most interesting on the actors. Stephen is a huge man. One of the things that is so wonderful filming with him for a character like this is that he's a good six inches taller than Logan, and huge over Patrick. The little kid in the movie would come up to basically his knee. So there's a wonderful sense of scale – but he
