When those few seconds of footage aired on ET last week everyone assumed that Marvel would be getting ready to unleash more footage and maybe even the full trailer very soon. It looks like that's not to be I'm afraid. Word is that we will be waiting a little (maybe a lot) longer for that highly anticipated trailer for Joe Johnston's Captain America: The First Avenger. Branding Consultant Greg Littlely had this to say.. Not good news.. I'm hearing that the "Captain America: The First Avenger" trailer is being delayed. Footage isn't 'Amazing'. The delay seems to be legit, but as for the lack of quality well that's just something we will have to wait and find out for ourselves. But everything we have seen from the movie so far has looked great, and even though I have my reservations about Johnston, I'm not going to jump on this as confirmation of my concerns
