

The new Australian trailer for Marvel and Paramount's much anticipated film Captain America: The First Avenger looks very much like the second trailer released for the film with one small, yet significant alteration. Gone are the words "Heroes are made in America" to be replaced by "When evil rises, a hero will stand." Captain America: The First Avenger will focus on the early days of the Marvel Universe when Steve Rogers volunteers to participate in an experimental program that turns him into the Super Soldier known as Captain America. As Captain America, Rogers joins forces with Bucky Barnes and Peggy Carter to wage war on the evil HYDRA organization, led by the villainous Red Skull.
