

AMC has released yet another clip from Sunday's episode of The Walking Dead (the first can be found along with a new promo by clicking here), and this one focuses on Carl and Jesus' journey in the back to the truck which is heading straight to Negan. As fans of the comics will know, the former ends up gunning down a number of the villains men upon arrival, only to then be taken on a tour of his home. Whether or not the show will follow the source material here remains to be seen, but the title provides an interesting clue - "Sing Me A Song" - as does the synopsis. "A deeper look at the Sanctuary and the world of the Saviors; members of Alexandria look for supplies." What are you guys most looking forward to seeing in this episode of The Walking Dead? As always, let us know your thoughts below.
