

John Arturo - When did you start collecting and how did you get into the hobby? Billy Turner - I've been picking up things here and there for about 15 years, but I've only gotten serious about it about 5 years ago. I got into the hobby just by having a casual interest. Once I realized how much stuff I had picked up I was full blown. John Arturo - What makes Batman your favorite character? Billy Turner - I've been into Batman since I was four years old. My Grandfather used to watch the re-runs of the old Adam West Batman show and I would watch it with him. I've been hooked ever since. John Arturo - Do you collect anything else? Billy Turner - I also collect comic books and some sports memorabilia, but my Batman collection is far more impressive
