

John Arturo - When did you start collecting and how did you get into the hobby? Destroyer14 - It was actually back in January. I've had a Godzilla and Gigan figure for over ten years when they sold them at KB Toys and other places, but never started 'collecting' until January of this year. Joining the TOHO Kingdom forums was influential. Seeing all those collections inspired me to start my own, as a Godzilla fan. John Arturo - Your collection is focused on Godzilla. What draws you to that character? Destroyer14 - Oh it goes way back. I've been into Godzilla as far back as I remember. My dad had got me into it, my furthest memory is him bringing home a few VHS tapes. Ghidorah, Vs. Mechagodzilla II, Vs. Destoroyah, and Vs. Biollante. How can one not like Godzilla? He's a giant monster that battles other giant monsters. Unlike American

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/johnarturo/news/?a=62686>