

John Arturo - When did you start collecting and how did you get into the hobby? William Hannay - I started collecting when I was about 15, so this is a collection that has been in the works for 10 years now John Arturo - Do you collect anything else? William Hannay - Sports stuff John Arturo - What are your favorite collectible companies? William Hannay - I am going to have to say its hot toys. They are super pricey, but I have yet to be dissappointed John Arturo - What is your favorite part of collecting? William Hannay - I think it is the hunt for that awesome item, and the thrill of finding something you were not expecting. John Arturo - What is the key thing you look for in an item you want to add to your collection? William Hannay - It is definitely condition. If the box and item is in rough
