

John Arturo - When did you start collecting and how did you get into the hobby? jakee1921 - I got into collecting comic books when I was in the 4th grade. I was on a family vacation and we were in a supermarket and I saw the comic rack and got my first comic book that day. It was Uncanny X-Men issue #395 the Poptopia story arc. John Arturo - Wow! You have a nice collection of trades. Do you primarily focus on trades or do you do single issues as well? jakee1921 - I have shoe boxes overflowing with single issues, I just find trades easier to read and focus on because the whole story is right there. But I do love collecting single issues as well. They all have a lot of value to me. John Arturo - Do you collect anything else? jakee1921 - I did collect things like Yu-Gi-Oh cards

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/johnarturo/news/?a=50333&t=CBM_Collectors_Collections_-_jakee1921