

John Arturo - When did you start collecting and how did you get into the hobby?

Jon@UnCanny - I've been collecting since I can remember. As a kid, action figures comprised my entire toy collection. I've been a massive Godzilla, Marvel, TMNT, and Star Wars fan my entire life - and have collected each respectively for a good 20 years! As I've gotten older, my collecting has narrowed to Godzilla and Japanese Kaiju vinyls - as the Big G is my primary love!

My mother is a Sci-Fi nut, and I'm sure she got me into the whole mess. I've always been fascinated with super heroes and monsters, though - so it may as well have been my own crazy little mind that drew me toward comic books and action figures. John Arturo - Your collection features lots of Godzilla. What draws you to the character of Godzilla? Jon@UnCanny - That's a

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/johnarturo/news/?a=60478>